WOMAN IS STILL IN PRISON

"Securities" in Cleveland Bank Have Face Value of Millions But Are Worthless.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—H. W. Bell this morning was appointed receiver of the Chadwick alleged securities held by Iri Reynolds.

New York, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick still languished in the Tombs prison this morning but before the day is over her lawyers may deposit the $15,000 bail, which will give the woman her freedom. Mr. Carpenter admitted today that he believed he would be able to deposit the amount this afternoon.

Mrs. Chadwick's declaration that she would not spend two nights in prison in default of so small an amount availed nothing. She told the guard this forenoon, wearily: "Well, this is the last day of this torture, thank heaven."

A puzzling question today is, where will Mrs. Chadwick go if she gets bail? She has said that she would return to Cleveland immediately and face her accusers. She contends that she still has influential friends in Cleveland, who would help her if she could reach their ears. She announced that she would waive examination here and allow the marshal to take her to Cleveland last night, and she probably would have done so had she not got a telegram from Judge Albough, of Canton, advising her not to do so. There are stories afloat today that Mrs. Chadwick in fact does not intend to go to Cleveland if she succeeds in getting bail, but that her course will be in an opposite direction with a destination unknown. The question of whether Mrs. Chadwick would be extraditable from foreign lands on the present charges against her is being investigated today.

At 11 o'clock today Attorney Carpenter said he had not obtained bail. He seemed to have lost his confidence that the cash would be forthcoming.

Carpenter and Powers, Mrs. Chadwick's New York lawyers, paid a visit to her cell just before noon today.

Mrs. Chadwick spent another restless night in her cell. It was after midnight before she lay down upon the hard cot. Then she tossed uneasily for hours.

Mrs. Chadwick sent for the prison caterer for her breakfast and also asked that the newspapers be sent to her. She neglected her meal to read with interest the account of the discovery that the securities held by Banker Reynolds were worthless. Mrs. Chadwick did not know until she got the papers that this phase of her great swindling operation was known to the public. She sent telegrams to her son and Frieda Swanson, summoning them to the Tombs. Mrs. Chadwick has quite regained her remarkable nerve. In prison she has thrown off that tottering gait and trembling weakness.

Dr. Levin, the city physician looked at Mrs. Chadwick this morning and declared that he could see nothing the matter with her.

SPECIAL SESSION OF FEDERAL GRAND JURY

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—U. S. Judge Francis J. Wing, formerly of Newark presiding over the court in Toledo signed an order late yesterday calling for a special session of the federal grand jury to meet in this city next Wednesday to consider the Chadwick case. The order was signed at the request of District Attorney Sullivan.

U. S. Marshal Chandler brought the order with him from Toledo last night. Marshal Chandler will begin the panel of the special grand jury today.

"SECURITIES"

Held by Reynolds—It is said the Cleveland Banker loaned the Woman His Fortune.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—The mysterious "securities" held in trust by Banker Reynolds for Mrs. Chadwick the Advocate yesterday, consist of the which were announced as valueless in following:

A note for $5,000,000 bearing the signature "Andrew Carnegie."

A certificate of trusteeship which states that Andrew Carnegie has in his possession stock and bonds to the amount of $7,500,000, held by him in trust for Mrs. Chadwick. This paper also bears the same signature. These securities supposed to represent the vast amount of $12,500,000 have been for the past three years the principal basis on which Mrs. Chadwick has conducted her financial system.

The note for $5,000,000 is believed to have been written and signed by the same person who filled out and signed the notes for $500,000 and $250,000 held by the Oberlin bank.

The note for $5,000,000 bears a much earlier date than the others, it was executed in the year 1902.

The document purporting to be Mr. Carnegie's certificate of trusteeship for Mrs. Chadwick's securities is in the same handwriting. Not only is the signature the same, but the body of the document is written in the same hand. There are two copies, exactly alike, but executed separately, and neither marked as a duplicate.

According to this document the securities held by Andrew Carnegie for Mrs. Chadwick consist of U. S. Steel bonds, Caledonian railway stock in Scotland and Great Western railway stock in England, the three aggregating $7,500,000.

Added to the $12,500,000 "securities" are the $500,000 and $250,000 notes held by the Oberlin bank, and the $500,000 note admitted to exist by President Beckwith, of the Oberlin bank, making a total of $15,750,000. All these "securities" will likely be placed in evidence in the grand jury investigation.

On the strength of these securities Banker Reynolds is said to have loaned the woman a vast amount of his personal fortune.

Attorneys interested in the case and who have examined the "securities" say they are "not worth a cent."

Boston, Dec. 10.—Herbert D. Newton admitted in a statement that his chance of getting anything from the tangle of Mrs. Chadwick's affairs is slim. "I believe, however, that if the woman had not been driven to bay so quickly I should have received my money," he said. "There were certain influences working that might eventually have resulted in a settlement in full."

In regard to statement of Rev. Dr. Eaton of Cleveland that he aided in having introduced Mrs. C. L. Chadwick and Herbert D. Newton, though he was not well acquainted with the woman, Mr. Newton said: "All I've got to say is this: I don't see why, simply because a man happens to be a minister of the gospel, he should not step forth in man fashion and take his medicine like the rest of us." Asked if he entertained any bitterness toward Mrs. Chadwick, he said: "I can truthfully say I do not. I have suffered much through this affair, but I can say with truth that I bear no malice toward any one. I could not help thinking when reading the account of Mrs. Chadwick's trouble that the way of the transgressor is hard—I pity her from the bottom of my heart."

Concerning the crediting of Mr. Newton with having for a settlement through John Rockefeller, on the assumption that he would not wish to have his pastor's name dragged into the affair, Mr. Newton said: "There is no truth in that report. I have had hopes of a settlement, but not through Mr. Rockefeller. Mrs. Chadwick represented to me that she had certain securities in the care of Iri Reynolds, and I was shown an affidavit signed by him stating that he had in his possession stocks and bonds belonging to her valued at $5,000,000 and upwards. I don't understand that there is any question concerning the genuineness of this affidavit, and on that I rest my case."

San Francisco, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Alice M. York of this city reiterated her statement that she is the sister of Mrs. Chadwick, despite the latter's repudiation of relationship. She said: "My sister, Elizabeth Bigley, now Mrs. Chadwick, was born near London, Canada, about 42 years ago. Her girlhood days were spent at Eastwood and Woodstock, which was the home of our family. She was not a great reader, and as for having read books on mesmerism and the like that is all nonsense. When I was married and went to live in Cleveland she came to live with me. That was in 1881."

For a More Open Game.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 10.—In a letter to the Yale Alumni Weekly, Walter Camp, who is a member of the standing committee on football rules, suggests that the time is ripe for a rule requiring a team to make double the distance now required, that is, make ten yards in three trials, or surrender the ball. This, he argues, will insure the progress of the ball at twice the present rate or else a kick, and will be in line with the desire frequently expressed by players and public for a more "open" game.

President Johnson's Mission.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—President B. B. Johnson of the American Baseball league, left for Cincinnati to confer with Garry Hermann regarding the situation among the minor leagues. Mr. Johnson is invested with full power to deal with Mr. Hermann as a representative of the National league and it is not expected that there will be any friction in the National baseball commission. The minor leagues have been making threats, especially in the matter of drafting players.

SOUND ASLEEP

MAN SAID HE FOUND HIMSELF STANDING IN A STREAM.

Unique Defense Offered by a Man Who is on Trial for Crime at Washington C. H.

Washington C. H., O., Dec. 10.—A most remarkable defense was made in a case just concluded in the common pleas court here before Judge Dordlinger and a jury.

John Oaker, a young Jackson county farmer, of good reputation, was indicted by the Fayette county grand jury for criminally assaulting May Schrader, a twelve-year-old girl living with the family of Daniel Heind, a farmer, north of Jeffersonville, for whom Oaker was cutting corn at the time.

One night in September, it was alleged, Oaker left his room about midnight and entered the bed chamber of May Schrader. The girl testified that she was so badly frightened that she could scarcely breathe. "He bade me keep quiet, and said if I wouldn't tell he would not hurt me," she testified.

When testimony for the defense commenced a very unusual turn was taken. Oaker testified that he is a somnambulist. He testified that the only recollection he had of what took place on the occasion alluded to by Miss Schrader was that he suddenly awakened and found himself seated on the edge of her bed. He immediately arose, walked to his own room and went to bed. He thought nothing of the incident until the following afternoon.

His wife and sister-in-law were on the witness stand and recited many strange somnambulist performances by Oaker. On one occasion he was found in his night clothes standing in a stream of water, sound asleep. The neighbors of the accused substantiated the testimony of the Oakers.

The attorneys for the defendant made a strong plea to show that if Oaker committed the crime alleged he was asleep at the time and was therefore innocent in the eyes of the law.

The jury pondered over the case at great length and finally returned a verdict of guilty. An effort will be made to carry the case to a higher court.

BUYING UP OWN STOCK

Steel Trust Said to be Profiting by the Slump—What a Leading Broker Has to Say.

New York, Dec. 10.—The following statement is made by a leading broker: "The strength of the common stock of the United States Steel Corporation, which is one of the most remarkable things ever seen in Wall street, is due to something more than a revival in the steel trade. The rise of this stock in the market had its foundation in the purchase of enormous blocks of the stock by the Steel corporation itself."

"I have every reason to believe that during the summer, when this stock was selling between 10 and 13, the Steel corporation bought 1,500,000 shares, paying for it out of its surplus. This stock probably cost the Steel corporation in the neighborhood of $18,000,000. The market value of this stock has since been as high as $50,000,000 and even at present prices, the corporation's investment in its own stock shows a handsome profit."

MURDER TRIAL

In Progress at Zanesville, Spencer Being Accused of Killing Book Agent Tanner.

Zanesville, O., Dec. 10.—Edward Spencer, a young Muskingum county farmer, is on trial here charged with the murder last August of William G. Tanner, book agent. Tanner's body has found in a corn field near Chancellersville, the body being first located by a dog.

A peculiar feature of the case is that while Spencer is accused of the murder of William G. Tanner and has partially confessed to the crime the wife of the victim, Mrs. W. G. Tanner, of Camden N. J., has written here that she has absolute proof that her husband is alive in Cairo, Ill. What effect this will have upon the case cannot be anticipated.

The members of the jury were taken to Chancellersville by Sheriff Elliott to visit the scene of the murder. The hickory bludgeon which was used to kill Tanner, his bloodstained bank book, his set of false teeth, coat, shoes and hat are on display in the court room.

Wilbur Charville, convicted of arson at Norwalk, Ohio, has asked for a new trial.

New York, Dec. 10.—Three more teams were forced out of the bike race today as the result of the swift pace. Seven teams remain.

IRI REYNOLDS

Declines to Talk About the Chadwick Securities

WILL TELL STORY TO COURT

Prosecutor Keeler Expects to Have Important Witnesses Before Grand Jury Monday.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—Banker Iri Reynolds, who was asked about the report wired the Advocate yesterday to the effect that the Chadwick securities he holds are worthless, said: "There is no possible means whereby any information in regard to the genuineness of the securities that I hold of Mrs. Chadwick's could have become known. You may say for me that any rumors in regard to their being worthless could not have arisen from any knowledge gained about them in the last few days. This is true for the reason that they have been jealously guarded against inspection by any one. Only on the witness stand will I make known what they are. The case cannot be tried out of court. These securities were turned over to me as trustee and I will say nothing about them except as trustee," was the banker's reply. Regarding the attestation for $5,000,000 which he is said to have made, Mr. Reynolds also declined to make a statement.

After two witnesses were heard in the Chadwick case the grand jury adjourned until Monday. Director Whitney and Cashier Spear of Oberlin testified. President Beckwith and Receiver Lyons are expected to testify Monday. Harvey Keeler, prosecutor, well known in Newark and Granville is conducting the case before the grand jury.

CHARITY AND CRIME

Played a Double Role in the Career of the Chicago Jekyll-Hyde, E. B. Clark.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Acting by day as superintendent of the printing department of a local manufacturing company, and at night the part of a charitable highwayman, is said to have been the career of Edward B. Clark, now under arrest. According to his confession he has played the varied role for a year. He has admitted being implicated in several hold ups which have muzzled the police.

Incidentally, Clark declared that he had traveled all over the world, and that on one occasion while making a trip to China, he struck down and killed three of a crew of sailors who had mutinied. Herbert Boyer, also a printer, was taken into custody as an accomplice.

In all the robberies Clark is said to have been a charitable thief, returning part of the stolen property to the victim. In one instance he ordered Boyer at the muzzle of a revolver to return a gold watch which they had stolen from a woman. In another case he says, he and his companion were robbed by a bartender after they had robbed him.

Clark's home is handsomely furnished, and he has borne a good reputation.

NAN PATTERSON HAPPY

PROGRESS OF HER TRIAL

New York, Dec. 10.—Nan Patterson is today in a happy mood. The next session of her trial will be held Monday. It is likely that the state's case will be presented in its entirety by the end of next week.

Might Move to Utah.

Oklahoma City, Ok. T., Dec. 10.—In the district court here, the case of divorce separating Mrs. Dorothy Mason from Edward T. Mason, a millionaire silk merchant of New York, is said in 1904, was set aside on the record that it was secured through false and fraudulent statements by Mason and his attorney. Since the divorce Mason has been twice married.

TWO MILLIONS

IT WILL COST TO PIPE GAS TO CINCINNATI.

Ohio Fuel Supply Company to Depend Largely Upon Gas From Licking and Knox Counties.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10.—"Yes, it is true that our company is contemplating the piping of natural gas to Cincinnati," said J. M. Garard, second vice president and general manager of the Ohio Fuel Supply company, last evening. "We are now making a survey from the field to Cincinnati, and when we reach there will survey another line back, and on the report of these surveys we will determine the route, and whether we will come through or go south of Columbus. Our line will probably pass through Xenia, leaving Dayton and Springfield to the north and west, those cities having gas, though the supply is short."

"The company has not yet applied for a franchise within the city of Cincinnati, but we will pipe to the city limits and then make the application. This will be the strongest kind of evidence of our good faith. The piping of gas to that city will involve an expenditure of about $2,000,000."

"Our fields are excellent, and we have millions on millions of cubic feet of gas shut up in Knox, Licking, Fairfield, Hocking, Perry, Athens and Vinton counties, but the survey is being made from the intersection of the 15-inch mains from the Knox, Licking and Sugar Grove fields."

GIRL'S CONFESSION

Rosie Perkins Says She Set Fire to Playmate's Dress to See What Would Happen.

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 10.—Rosie Perkins, 14, of Alexandria, who is being held here, charged with having set fire to the clothing of her playmate, Nellie Maynard, 7, who died Tuesday from the resulting injuries, was examined by a probation officer. According to the officer, the girl confessed to having set fire to the Maynard girl's clothing "just to see what would happen." The case will be investigated by the grand jury next week.

PENSION DRAWN

By Wife Who Thought Towne Dead. Though Married Again He Rejoins Former Wife.

Toledo, O., Dec. 10.—Twenty-one years ago Philo B. Towne, a veteran of the civil war, left his family, consisting of his wife and two daughters. A short time previously he suffered an accident which unbalanced his mind, and this was said to be the cause of his departure.

Nothing was learned of his whereabouts until a few weeks ago, when he made application for a pension. Then it developed that the wife, who resides in Toledo, had thought him dead and had been on the pension rolls as his widow for several years. In the meantime Towne recovered his mind, although his past life was a blank, and had married a Kentucky girl, with whom he resided on a farm in that state. Towne has rejoined his wife and family here, and abandoned his Kentucky wife.

GOT AWAY

Alleged Train Robber Escaped, but the Cincinnati is Still Held as a Witness.

San Bernardino, Cal., Dec. 10.—Important developments have come to light in the hunt for the man who shot Express Messenger Roberts and robbed the Santa Fe safe on the Overland train Monday morning. In the capture of J. W. Reeder, of San Francisco, the officers believed they would have behind the bars the much sought robber. Reeder escaped from the officers at Goffs, a small station on the Santa Fe 50 miles east of where the robbery was supposed to have occurred, and it is believed that he boarded Roberts' train that morning.

An important witness who it is thought can prove that Reeder boarded that train out of Goffs, is O. F. Nelson of Cincinnati, who is in custody as a witness.

Reeder was in charge of the Santa Fe omnibus at Goffs, having been employed only four days before. He had been charged with an assault upon a child. He managed to escape.

SHIPPED

As a Stowaway so That He Might Visit Dying Mother—New Orleans People Will Aid Shot.

New Orleans, Dec. 10.—Had not local people interested themselves in his case, Paul Shot, a London music hall pianist, and who claims to be a brother of Grace Shot, the vaudeville actress, would have to return to London without seeing his dying mother. She lives at Marshall, Mich., and three weeks ago wrote him that she was in poor health and would like to see him before she died. Having no money he shipped on the Layland liner anglian as a stowaway.

Hunger compelled him to leave his hiding place several days before the boat arrived, but the officers treated him kindly, giving him food and allowing him to pay his way by work. The manual labor exhausted him, as he was not accustomed to it, and on arrival here he was taken sick. As he was without funds the Immigration Board ordered him deported.

Local people became interested in his case, and through their efforts a stay of the order was secured so that his mother might be communicated with. If she has the money to pay his fare he will be allowed to visit her.

TEAMSTER GANG

HAVING FINISHED WORK IN THE GAS FIELD.

Starts Back to Pennsylvania—May Return to Work on the Utica-Cincinnati Pipe Line.

Ten veteran teamsters and ten veteran teams spent Thursday night in the city. The men were transporting themselves overland in the good old-fashioned method of sixty years ago. As one watched the passing caravan of weather-beaten, muscular men and powerful, active horses, the mind involuntarily, with one backward leap, bridged the terrific gap now intervening between the modern railway and the once bustling national roads, with their straining teams and creaking wagons.

The outfit in question was the one of which publication has been made in previous issues, relative to the wonderful feat of wagoning six pieces of machinery weighing 42 tons each, from the B. & O. railroad station at Utica, to the new gas pumping station at the village of Homer, four miles distant.

So gigantic was this undertaking that the officials in charge sent all the way to Green county, Pa., for men and teams of sufficient skill and experience to do the work.

Meeks & Sprague are the contractors. Their headquarters are at Waynesburg, Pa., in the oil and gas fields of that state.

The outfit consisted entirely of men who regularly follow teaming in the gas region, moving heavy rigs and other apparatus the year around. They left Green county on November 24, arriving at Utica on the 29th, accomplishing the 160 miles between at a rate of a little more than 20 miles a day. Seven weeks were consumed in accomplishing the transportation of the four loads four miles. The first one upset and went through the bottom of a bridge at Homer. Four days were required to rescue it from this compromising position. The remaining three pieces were more satisfactorily moved, but owing to the extensively dry weather and the great weight of the loads the road bed broke up under the loads, and often it was necessary to temporarily corduroy them by means of planks thrown down. As great a number as 36 horses were used in a single team.

The Pennsylvanians interviewed by the Advocate seemed to be fine, genial fellows, and appeared to have enjoyed their Ohio experiences. Lindsey White was the spokesman. He gave the names of his associates as David Bush, John Strommiller, Sam Greenleaf, Geo. Lumley, Pete Ketchum, Jason Clark, "Poker" Davis and Jesse Pester. Elkworth Gladden, James Ruby and Dan O'Hara accompanied them as assistants. The hills in Ohio seemed magnificent to the boys as compared with what they were used to in Pennsylvania. This advantage was offset, according to their ideas, by what they considered the stiffness of the roads.

Pennsylvania roads being of much harder consistency, no broadroad wagons being used there at all. The final summary of the men as they made ready to move down the Zanesville road was that Ohio is all right, but not what they were used to. They stated, however, that they anticipated returning next summer to haul one hundred and twenty miles of double pipe line for the Ohio Fuel and Supply company. The contemplated line is to extend from Utica, Ohio, to Cincinnati.

Ward, marshal of Shelby, and George May arrived Saturday to identify Avery Huff, who is in jail awaiting action of the grand jury on the charge of horse stealing and if possible to learn something of a horse and buggy that had been stolen on Dec. 1. They identified Huff, but he denied knowledge of the rig.

MYSTIFIES JAPS

Russians Did Not Resist Disabling of Fleet

PORT ARTHUR TO BE STARVED

Main Object of Desperate Assault Against Fortress Has Been Accomplished.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Today the Japanese legation received a Tokyo dispatch officially reporting the loss of the Japanese cruiser Saiyan which struck a mine near Port Arthur. A captain and 37 men were drowned. The message also confirms the reported disaster to the Russian vessels at Port Arthur.

London, Dec. 10.—According to the Morning Post's Shanghai dispatches the Port Arthur forces with the exception of those manning the forts, have already retreated to Laotie mountain. Details continue to filter in of the capture of 203-Meter hill. The Daily Telegraph's correspondent before Port Arthur explains that the final capture was due to a strong and sustained Japanese fleet against the eastern fortification on the night of Dec. 5 and the position of 203-Meter hill being an enfilading one, forced the Russians to evacuate without a contest a parallel line of semi-permanent defences extending eastward and irregularly over the slopes within a half mile north of Etse mountain. The Japanese casualties at 203-Meter hill alone exceeded the total of the battle of Nanshan, according to the Daily Mail's Tokyo dispatches.

A dispatch from Tokyo states: "In the destruction of the Russian squadron at Port Arthur, precluding the possibility of its being able to reinforce the Russian second Pacific squadron, the Japanese have accomplished the main object of the desperate assaults against the fortress which they have been making for three months. There is now a strong probability that, while continuing the siege, they will avoid losses of the magnitude attending their efforts, and instead of assaulting will rely on starving out the garrison until it is finally captured."

"Considerable astonishment is expressed here over the fact that the Russians in no way resisted the disabling of the Port Arthur fleet. Now that the Port Arthur fleet has been disabled, it is deemed impossible for the Russians to overcome the inferiority of the second Pacific squadron to Togo's fleet unless, at present, unforeseen, the Black sea fleet, should reach the Dardanelles."

Baltic Fleet Stopped?

London, Dec. 10.—A St. Petersburg dispatch today says that definite instructions have been sent to Admiral Rozhdestvensky, commander of the Baltic fleet not to proceed to the far East. Reports concerning the despatch of a third squadron to the far East are considered mere speculation.

Czar's Proposition to Sultan.

London, Dec. 10.—A St. Petersburg dispatch today says that it is reported in diplomatic circles that Russia has offered to cancel the remaining Turkish indebtedness to Russia, incurred as war indemnity, providing the Sultan allows the Black Sea fleet to pass through the Dardanelles.

LATE TELEGRAPH TICKS

The British admiralty has issued orders rearranging the British fleets and placing them on a permanent war footing. The order was drawn up to meet any unexpected eventuality which might arise.

In Philadelphia today H. Shelp company's lumber yard was damaged by fire, loss $150,000.

In the athletic meet of Cambridge and Oxford today, Cambridge won.

State examiners today filed with Auditor Gullbert a report of the investigation of the books of Cuyahoga county's public officials. The report charges that from September, 1902 to September, 1904, Auditor Wright drew illegal fees aggregating $4870.65, Treasurer Nunn, $5,859.95; and others various amounts. Charges of excessive fees are made. Reports show that on July 25, 1904, Sheriff Barry paid back to the county $1,029.33.

Justice Baker of the supreme court of New Mexico, was today removed from office by the President. His affairs are said to be in bad condition, but he is not guilty of corrupt practices.

That the President has decided not to call a special session of congress at the close of the present session was made certain today by his promise to Representative Cooper to visit Texas in the spring.

DRESDEN MILL

May Soon be Started by the Steel Trust—Material is Now Being Shipped to Town.

From reliable sources it is learned that the Dresden Sheet mill is to be started in the near future. This mill is owned by the United States Steel corporation. For many months it has been closed and its loss was deeply felt by Dresden, as it formerly employed about 100 men.

Active preparations have already been begun by the company for the reopening of the plant and a large amount of material is being shipped into Dresden for the mill.

There are also rumors that the United States Steel corporation is contemplating the removal of its sheet mill at Dennison to Dresden and combining it with the present plant at that place.

AMUSEMENTS

What gives every indication of proving an interesting engagement will be the appearance tonight at the Auditorium of that king pin rural comedy, "The Hoosier Girl," with Miss Kate Watson as the star. At no time in her professional career has Miss Watson ever presented a work that has appealed more strongly to all classes of the audience than in this ideal American play. The characterizations in "The Hoosier Girl" offer Miss Watson an opportunity to demonstrate her great versatility and right royally does she avail herself of it.

A SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT.

The best entertainment of its kind ever given in Newark was that at Taylor hall Friday night by Lyman H. Howe, who for two solid hours delighted an audience in Taylor hall with a series of moving pictures. The entertainment was given under the auspices of Lacking Aerie of Eagles. The machine used by Mr. Howe was absolutely perfect in its mechanism, and the accompaniments to each set of pictures were very realistic. Those who saw the pictures Friday night were delighted with the announcement that Mr. Howe would play a return date in Newark at the Auditorium.

ALL NEXT WEEK.

One of the enjoyable features of the Howard-Dorset repertoire and vaudeville engagement at the Auditorium all of next week commencing Monday, December 12, is the specialties which will be introduced between the acts every evening. Smith & Arado, who are fun producers of some reputation, will entertain with their singing and dancing act, that is eccentric and a side splitter for laughter. The wonderful De Vans, being of Ringling circus fame, will perform some acrobatic feats accompanied by the most phenomenal acrobat dog now upon the stage. Some of the plays that will be offered are "The Plunger" the opening play, "The Boy Tramp," "A Trip to Bombay," "Why Jones Left Home," "A Noble Sacrifice," and other bills of equal merit. Monday as is usual with a week stand company, ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by one paid thirty cent ticket. All those desiring to take advantage of the liberal offering for Monday night should not delay in securing their seats for they will not last long, this popular company being the attraction.

NEWARK FESTIVAL CHORUS.

A rare musical treat is in store for the music loving people of Newark. The Newark Festival Chorus, which it is proposed to increase to a membership of over two hundred, will give a grand musical festival in this city in the early spring. The chorus already consists of over sixty members, which holds rehearsals in the chapel of the Newark High school on every Tuesday evening, under the directorship of Prof. Arthur Judson, and it is urged that all those interested in music attend and take part in the rehearsals. An orchestra of forty pieces will furnish the music at the festival.

GREAT SOUTHERN THEATRE.

A big week is anticipated at the Great Southern the coming week, as four strong cards will be offered the amusement seeking public, and all come well endorsed. The first a rural drama of the New England type, the second a Shakespearean comedy, and the other two are comic operas of the first calibre.

Richard Golden will usher in the week on Monday evening by presenting his new play, "Common Sense Bracket." Mr. Golden is under the management of Mr. Henry W. Savage whose name stamped to an attraction, marks success in every instance. Florence Rockwell, Louise Galloway, Esther Lyons, Theodore Babcock and H. S. Northrup are in the cast and several surprises in stage effect are promised.

Shakespeare will hold the boards on Tuesday evening when Miss Ada Rehan will be seen as Katherine in that wholesome comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew." Everybody is well acquainted with the work of Miss Ada Rehan and a perfect piece of dramatic portraiture may be expected. Charles Richmond is her leading man, and in the cast also is Miss Fola LaFollette the daughter of the governor of Wisconsin, of which the newspapers have lately been exploiting so widely.

Wednesday evening the new Tibetan comic opera success, "The Forbidden Land," will be the attraction. This latest contribution to the lyric stage is said to be the funniest opera in years.

On Friday evening the 16th, Miss Lulu Glaser ("The Glorious Glaser") will offer her new comic opera vehicle, "A Madcap Princess." This is an operatic rendering of the romance of Princess Mary Tudor's elopement with Charles Brandon, and is founded on Charles Major's novel, "When Knight-hood was in Flower." Miss Glaser also needs no introduction to theatre-goers since her big success in "Dolly Varden" last season. A grand musical treat is in store for those who attend this presentation.

BEAUTY MORE THAN SKIN DEEP. A Good Complexion Must Come From Within.

It is the natural desire of every ambitious woman to have a clear skin and a beautiful complexion. Outward application of powders can never do more than partially cover up a poor complexion and is apt to ruin the texture of the skin if used persistently. Constipation is responsible for not only the greater part of headaches, biliousness, bad breath, torpid liver, backache and lack of energy but for sallow, muddy complexions as well.

The only right way to remove pimples, blotches and clear up a muddy, cloudy complexion is to go right to the root of the trouble. The one remedy that will cure constipation, improve the complexion, brighten the eyes, quicken the circulation, cure sick headache and insure a clear, velvety skin is Laxative Bromo Tablets.

So that there may be no possible chance for disappointment, and to protect both you and the druggist, we have agreed to refund the full retail price of 25 cents to Wiles-Erman Drug Co., by issuing a Guarantee Contract, authorizing them to pay back your money if the remedy does not benefit you as claimed. 12-3-dt

HOWLING FARCE COMEDY

Now On the Republican Boards in Ohio--Searching for Candidate Against Herrick--Foraker's Anxiety Wishes and Interests in the Contest.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10.—The howling farce comedy now upon the Republican boards in this state becomes more amusing as it progresses. The chorus is armed with microscopes, each one going around in search of a candidate for governor to pit against Herrick. Every time it is believed that one has been discovered the victim suddenly slips out of the grasp of his captor and loses himself in the tall timber. One after another a large number have already escaped in this manner, but the search still goes on with a zeal that would be delightful to contemplate if it were not so hopeless. The one ray of hope that remains consists of the attitude of Lieutenant Governor Harding. All the chronic gubernatorial candidates among the Republicans of the state, like Douglas of Chillicothe, Daugherty of Columbus and various others who always get into the "mentioned class," have mysteriously eluded the search for a candidate this year.

It is now known positively that Foraker is anxious for Lieut. Governor Harding to go after the nomination. The senior senator sees nothing in the future for him, or for Harding either for that matter, if the political domination of Dick, Herrick and Malloy is to continue indefinitely. Foraker understands perfectly well that Herrick's ultimate ambition does not stop with his re-election as governor. Mr. Herrick is a candidate for United States senator to succeed Foraker and if he is renominated and re-elected governor all the power of his administration and of the state machine managed by Senator Dick will be employed to promote this ambition up to the time a legislature is chosen to name Foraker's successor.

Under these conditions opposition to Herrick on Foraker's part is a necessary matter of self preservation. This is called "the first law of nature," and it has always been the first consideration with Foraker. He is in an irrepressible conflict with the powers that be, and it is simply a case of manslaughter on one side or the other. No man in Foraker's situation could be indifferent to the necessity of saving himself.

It is a long time before the meeting of the next Republican state convention, and during that time the opposition to Governor Herrick, now so manifest, may increase with such a velocity that an opposition candidacy which would appear folly now, may become an entirely reasonable proposition. Foraker's aim will be to stir up the anti-Herrick Republicans from this time on, with a view to bringing about a condition in which a candidate against Herrick could claim that his appearance on the scene was necessary to the salvation of the Republican party. There are a great many Republicans who already believe that Herrick cannot be re-elected if nominated, and if these individuals will only be noisy enough they may yet stand a fair chance to defeat his nomination. In spite of his control of the party machine. In this event Lieut. Governor Harding is the man to lead the anti-Herrick forces. In his editorial sanctum at Marion it is understood that he is calmly awaiting the course of events and has his telescope out for storm signals.

One very funny thing about the situation is the evident anxiety of the governor of the state. It is noticeable in his handshake and his greeting. His friends and political associates notice it in their daily contact with him. Between the anti-saloon league, the doubtful attitude of the brewers and the uncertainty as to whom the Democrats will nominate for governor, Herrick is worried. Every time he picks up a paper his eyes are liable to light on some denunciatory resolution of some Christian or secular body, giving him and his administration "hail Columbia." The constant repetition of these offenses against the peace and dignity of the state house has a wearing effect upon the governor's nerves. If it keeps on he may not be fit to go before the next convention as a candidate. Altogether the men who seem best able to possess their souls in peace while this Republican strife is going on are Foraker, Harding and the other insurgents. Certain it is that just now the other fellows are doing the floor walking.

Ladies' degree staff, and 14 applications were received and referred to committees of investigation.

CONSUMPTION IN THE FIRST STAGES CAN BE CURED

A Pretty Matron Threatened With Consumption Saved By Pe-ru-na.

Miss Amelia Weymer.

Hundreds Have Been Cured of Incipient Consumption by Pe-ru-na.

The Following Letter From a Thankful Woman Tells Its Own Story.

Miss Margaret Fahey, 49 Adams St., Troy, N.Y., writes: "We have used Pe-ru-na in our family for years and am very pleased to say that it cured me of catarrh of the lungs when the doctors gave up all hope of my recovery."

"I used Pe-ru-na for six months and at the end of that time my cough had disappeared, my appetite was much better, I had gained ten pounds and looked the picture of health. I am in perfect health, now, and feel that Pe-ru-na not only cures catarrh, but builds up the system and is therefore a grand medicine."—Margaret Fahey.

Pe-ru-na cures the first stages of consumption by removing the cause, which is chronic catarrh. The catarrh having been cured the cough and other disagreeable symptoms cease.

Doctors Gave Him Up.
Mr. Lewis Kitchen, 214 North street, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "I cannot thank you enough for the good your

Mrs. Bertha Southworth, Laurens, Ia., Treasurer W. C. T. U., and President Christian Workers of Laurens Christian Church, writes:
"I was a sufferer from catarrh of the lungs for years and my health was in such a state that we were all very much alarmed over it. I always had a little cough and the slightest cold would settle on my lungs and cause distress in breathing. I had night sweats, and a pain in my side continually. I was greatly reduced in flesh, was very feeble and had no appetite whatever. After trying many doctors and medicines, I finally took the advice of a friend and bought a bottle of Pe-ru-na. My delight was great when I found I was improving before the first bottle was taken. I used several more bottles and am now perfectly well, and have regained my weight and appetite. I am glad to say a good word for your medicine."—Bertha Southworth.

CATARRH CAUSES CONSUMPTION

Pe-ru-na Never Fails to Cure Catarrh Wherever Located.

THE medical profession has so thoroughly prejudiced the minds of the people against patent medicines that it is with great reluctance that anyone can be persuaded to try such a remedy at first.

In nearly every one of the thousands of remarkable cures that Pe-ru-na has made the patients had to be persuaded by friends very strongly before they could lay aside their prejudice against it.

A large multitude, of course, had allowed the persuasions of friends and die simply because they have allowed their minds to be poisoned against this very excellent remedy.

But, fortunately, there is another large multitude of people who are able to shake off their prejudice and try Pe-ru-na before it is too late. These people are rarely disappointed. They generally try other remedies at the beginning of their troubles. They allow a cold to develop into catarrh of the head. They allow catarrh of the head to gradually become catarrh of the throat.

They still use the doctor's medicine or some other ineffectual remedy. The catarrh stealthily spreads down the bronchial tubes and reaches the lungs. Then they become alarmed. Faith in the doctor begins to disappear. The patient reaches a state of mind in which he is willing to try almost anything. A bottle of Pe-ru-na is sent for.

The first week it produces a decided change for the better. A few weeks' continued treatment cures the patient.

Thousands of Testimonials.
We have on file thousands of testimonials from people whom the doctors had given up to die with catarrh of the lungs, but who were fully restored to health by the use of Pe-ru-na.

AMOS MILLER'S FACE TERRIBLY LACERATED.

Desperate Effort Before Firmly Set Jaws of the Bird Dog Could be Removed.

Thornville, O., (Beech Woods), Dec. 10.—Amos Miller had his face horribly mangled by his bird dog yesterday. It got its foot fast in the wire fence and he attempted to loose it, the dog sprung like a tiger upon him, bit through his right cheek and tore it beyond recognition.

It required a desperate effort before the firmly-set jaws of the dog could be removed. His right hand was also badly bitten. His wounds were attended to by a physician. The dog is a bird dog and belongs to Mr. Miller.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL.

B. & O. Switchman Perry Santee Recovered From Operation, But Died of Heart Trouble.

Perry P. Santee, a well-known Baltimore & Ohio switchman, residing at 72 North street, this city, who underwent an operation at the city hospital a few days ago, died at that institution at 8 o'clock Saturday morning of heart trouble. The deceased was aged 57 years, and was a man who was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the First M. E. church, and a widow and two children, Harry and Gertrude Santee, survive him. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

Mr. Santee went to the hospital on Sunday night, December 4, and submitted to a very slight operation, which was performed by Drs. Stimson and Kauss. The operation was entirely successful, but the physicians warned him that he had organic heart trouble when the anesthetic was administered. The patient rallied and on Sunday morning was to go home at 9 o'clock. He had eaten his breakfast and was intending to walk to his home when without a moment's warning he dropped to the floor, and an immediate examination developed the fact that he was dead.

A Matter of Choice

The farmer sells butter, not Oleomargarine. We sell whiskey, not an imitation. Oleomargarine is all right, if you want it; So is imitation whiskey, but— Do you want it?

Edgewood Whiskey Bottled in Bond with the Government Stamp over the cork speaks for itself. It tells you:

- First, where it was made;
- Second, when it was made;
- Third, when it was bottled;
- Fourth, how much in the bottle;
- Fifth, per cent. of proof.

Buy Edgewood and get the best whiskey made in Kentucky; put up in quarts, pints, half pints, and one-tenth pints (one drink.) Keep a bottle in the house. If your dealer doesn't sell it, write us and we'll give you the name of one who does.

The biography, by Miss Harris, and the serious reading of the "Elegy in a Country Church Yard," by Miss Shuck, made plain to the audience what the other speakers would attempt to do. Each number on the program was so fine that the audience was kept in a constant state of surprise. to decide who should receive the large medal. The vote was a tie between Miss Whitcomb and Mr. McDonald.
